

Date: Sat, 14 Jan 2023 10:27:59 +0100

From: Axel Brandenburg <brandenb@nordita.org>

To: MICHELE COSTOLA <michele.costola@unive.it>

CC: Marco Baiesi <marco.baiesi@unipd.it>, Francesco Piazza <francesco.piazza@unifi.it>

Subject: Re: Svea Hovratt

Yes, good points. Spain signed on 12 May 1977. Regarding point 2, on the phone, Lina Vogel did specifically reply to my point that the other person said they reacted because "it is [looks?] official". She said this was not true, and the burden is on me. So, yes, by that account, I'd have to employ a lawyer to respond to the "The spaghetti justice". I suspect that the answer from Lina Vogel is not true either or incorrectly understood by me.

I still have not hired a lawyer yet. I was in touch with the lawyer that Henrik Hult hired, but he hasn't responded when I informed him about the fake identity of PESA on Wednesday. I wanted to find out more about the lawyer that Bjorn Johansson is using, but he has not yet responded since my email of yesterday evening.

Axel

On Sat, Jan 14, 2023 at 09:49:27AM +0100, MICHELE COSTOLA wrote:

> Dear all,

> two thoughts that I share with you.

>

> - Ferensby does not follow the legit path. From his perspective, he > could "legally" pursue you because you signed a contract and the (hiddend) > clause was in that contract. This is not happening. Why? I would say > because it is expensive and probably it is hard for him to win given that > one can reasonably show that it was a scam. Probably, he thought to fake > a legal order of payment and then follow the law of large numbers. Someone > uninformed will pay because it is cheaper in effort, time and money than > trial. But at the same time, he contacted a legal study in Madrid to > pursue Professor Lopez.
> - Ferensby is faking an European Court that orders you to pay. First, > how can that be taken seriously by Svea Hovratt? This implies that > everybody can sue someone in Sweden by faking his own court. I could create > "The spaghetti justice " and you will be obliged to formally respond > to Svea Hovratt? This is rather ott.

>

> Best

> Michele

>

>

> Il giorno sab 14 gen 2023 alle ore 09:24 Axel Brandenburg

>

> > Yes, of course, but I should be careful about information obtained just > > once on the phone. For example the idea that it would go back to Poland, > > which I was told by another colleague at the same court, was already not > > (fully) true.

> >

> > By the way, Sweden signed the New York convention on 28 January 1972, > > but Italy already on 31 January 1969. Maybe Sienicki has no Italian > > experts. You (or a legal friend of yours, or maybe a police detective) > > could ask him under a suitable pseudonym to write such things for his > > Villa Europa!

> > Axel

> >

> > On Sat, Jan 14, 2023 at 07:49:04AM +0100, Marco Baiesi wrote:

> > > Hi Axel, the fact that it is you who have to prove that they are responding > > > to a fake court, and not them checking it by standard procedures, continues > > > to surprise me quite a bit.

> > >

> > > Best, Marco

> > >

> > > Il Ven 13 Gen 2023, 22:24 Axel Brandenburg <axelbrandenburg@gmail.com>

> > >

> > > > Hi Francesco, Marco, and Michele,

> > > > I heard back from the Swedish court. They were not particularly surprised > > > > that this PESA is fake, this has happend before! It is simply one of the > > > > pieces of evidence I have to present. I also learnt that the Swedish > > > > Court might not allow this Polish "Court" (i.e., PESA) to challenge > > > > a Swedish rejection. She also strongly advised me to get a lawyer.
> > > > She told me about yet another person from Sweden, Bjorn Johansson, > > > > so now I want to check out his lawyer.
> > > > Cheers, Axel
> > > >
> > > > On Thu, Jan 12, 2023 at 05:03:12PM +0100, MICHELE COSTOLA wrote:
> > > > > Dear Axel,
> > > > > The most important thing is now that Svea Hovratt will immediately close > > > > > your case (and the other three) for the request of payment by PESA.
> > > > > If they do that, the issue will be de facto between PESA and Svea Hovratt.
> > > > > It would be interesting to see how they will act, an ex-officio > > > > > investigation is what should be done by default because they have been > > > > > completely played by Villa Europa. In my view, this is an impersonation of > > > > > an European legal cour and falsification of judicial documents.
> > > > > Michele
> > > > >
> > > > >
> > > > > Il giorno gio 12 gen 2023 alle ore 16:53 Axel Brandenburg
> > > > >
> > > > > > what I meant is that, to my judgement, they are not in charge to do > > > > > > investigations. They themselves may contact the state procecutor, but > > > > > > maybe others can do this too. But this would only apply if I feel I don't > > > > > > make progress with the police. I'm now calling and still in the queue...
> > > > > > Axel
> > > > > >
> > > > > > On Thu, Jan 12, 2023 at 04:42:17PM +0100, Marco Baiesi wrote: > > > > > > > Indeed it sounds very very strange that a Swedish court is not willing to > > > > > > > clarify this serious matter, which is also a way to save their public image.
> > > > > > > What is their fear?
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > Bye, Marco
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > Il giorno gio 12 gen 2023 alle ore 16:26 Francesco Piazza < > > > > > > > francesco.piazza@unifi.it> ha scritto:
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > > I still do not understand. It should be possible to speak with a human > > > > > > > > being at the Swedish court and explain them that the Polish court is fake > > > > > > > > (invite them to check this for themselves) and that the Polish claimant > > > > > > > > and the Polish judge are the same person!
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > > What I would expect in a world governed by reason (I know, I knowâ200|) > > > > > > > > is that the Swedish court should 1) apologise with Axel and > > > > > > > > 2) take measures to pursue an international case against Villa Europa > > > > > > > > for faking a courtâ200| (serious offence, it seems to meâ200|)
> > > > > > > > F
> > > > > > > >
> > > > > > > > On 12 Jan 2023, at 16:20, Axel Brandenburg <axelbrandenburg@gmail.com>
> > > > > > > >
> > > > > > > > Hi,
> > > > > > > > The Swedish court will itself not go after Poland, and it may be too big > > > > > > > > a thing for just the police, but one could directly contact the Public > > > > > > > > prosecutor's offices simultaneously in different countries. We'd need > > > > > > > > experts who can help us with this. My submitted letter to the Swedish > > > > > > > > court is in google drive.
> > > > > > > > Axel
> > > > > > > >
> > > > > > > > On Thu, Jan 12, 2023 at 12:38:03PM +0100, MICHELE COSTOLA wrote:
> > > > > > > >
> > > > > > > > Dear Axel,
> > > > > > > > Straight to the point. Flawless.
> > > > > > > > best
> > > > > > > > Michele
> > > > > > > >
> > > > > > > > Il giorno gio 12 gen 2023 alle ore 12:31 Axel Brandenburg <

```
> > > > > > > axelbrandenburg@gmail.com> ha scritto:
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > Thanks! I've now also sent a copy to my director and my lawyer in spe > > > > > > > (I have still not engaged him officially yet; I think it is good that > > > > > > > he realizes also their own shortcomings in trusting everything that just > > > > > > > looks official. I have something at 13:00, so will send it before then.
> > > > > > > Axel
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > On Thu, Jan 12, 2023 at 12:20:27PM +0100, Francesco Piazza wrote:
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > Reads absolutely perfect to me!
> > > > > > > Best
> > > > > > > F
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > On Thu, 12 Jan 2023, 12:14 Axel Brandenburg, <axelbrandenburg@gmail.com>
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > I attach a 0th draft, but plan to finalize it within the next 30 min > > > > > > > or so
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > Any suggestions welcome.
> > > > > > > Axel
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > On Thu, Jan 12, 2023 at 11:32:17AM +0100, Francesco Piazza wrote:
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > Hi Axel
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > OK, Svea Hovratt if I understand is the Swedish court of appeal.
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > I agree that you should immediately call them and let > > > > > > > them know that they acted automatically on an order from > > > > > > > a totally fake Polish court, unbelievable.
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > You could also inquire on what grounds they did so, presumably > > > > > > > enacting these 1958 agreements, which I feel we should understand > > > > > > > better.
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > Please, let us know how they react and what they say.
> > > > > > > Best wishes
> > > > > > >
> > > > > > > F
> > > > > > >
```